FULL PRESENCE MINDFULNESS 7th international TSK summer retreat Europe

How do we inhabit space? How do we live in time? These are questions Tibetan lama Tarthang Tulku invites us to explore. He has presented a vision that transforms reality by activating time and opening space. This is the Time-Space-Knowledge Vision (TSK).

Full Presence Mindfulness offers a new way to explore the TSK Vision. It builds on the practice of mindfulness, but takes it deeper. Through simple practices such as working with the breath, activating the senses, and letting go of thoughts, it shows us how to open to a richer and more joyful life. This program introduces Full Presence Mindfulness. Learn more about FPM on www.fullpresence.org and like the facebook-page of Full Presence Mindfulness.

If you want to learn mindfulness, deepen your practice, or learn about the treasures that Tarthang Tulku's TSK Vision offers, this is the place to start. If you are interested in learning how to teach mindfulness from a TSK perspective, this retreat will be the first step in a year-long teacher training.
